GAME OVER VIDEO TO OPEN IN LAMAR GATEWAY SHOPPING CENTER

AUSTIN, TX (August 22, 2005) — GAME OVER Videogames, a classic and used video game store, plans to open in the Austin area and will be Austin's FIRST video game store dedicated to classic gaming with over 400 NES games and over 400 Atari 2600 games, just to name a few examples.

The company, represented by Sherry Sanchez, Retail Specialist with NAI Commercial Industrial Properties Co. (NAI CIP), leased 1,200 square feet in the Lamar Gateway Shopping Center, located at 911 West Anderson Lane, at the corner of US Hwy 183 and Lamar Blvd.

Aspen Properties is currently remodeling the center.

According to David Kaelin, Owner, GAME OVER will buy, sell, and trade games for all video game systems from Atari to Xbox with a focus on classic/vintage games.

"Since most other game stores only sell new games, or used copies of recent games for only a few bucks cheaper than the new ones, this will be THE place in Austin to go for great prices on used games for current systems and hard to find older systems like Atari, Intellivision, NES and more," Kaelin says.

The company anticipates opening its doors in October.
