New Men's Store Coming to Rosedale Village

AUSTIN, Texas-NAI Commercial Industrial Properties Co. has leased 1,200 square feet of retail space in the Rosedale Village Shopping Center to Amy Schalk, founder of the women's clothing store, Soigné Boutique. The tenant was represented by Sherry Sanchez of the NAI CIP Retail Team.

Because Schalk has already found great success in Rosedale Village with Soigné Boutique, the new retail space will be used to create a male counterpart. Schalk's new creation, Slate, will be located at 4800 Burnet Road and open its doors in early December. It will offer men a unique shopping environment to find shirts and pants that follow the latest trends.
